Paylocity Named One of Best Places to Work in Illinois

Elk Grove Village, Illinois – April 25, 2007 – Paylocity, America's leading independent payroll provider has been named one of Illinois' best companies to work for the second consecutive year.

The rankings were determined through a criteria developed by Best Companies Group, of Harrisburg, Pa., following employee surveys and interviews. The number of companies participating in the survey is said to have more than doubled this year, according to James E. Elsener, President of Ledger Publishing, Inc., and Publisher of The Business Ledger.

"We are ecstatic to be once again named one of the best places to work in Illinois," says Steve Sarowitz, President of Paylocity. "We have a dedicated staff and we work hard to ensure each employee enjoys their experience here at Paylocity. We've also recently established several company culture programs in our efforts to continually improve our work environment. I've always had two simple goals: happy employees and happy clients. I believe that these two goals go together hand in hand. This award is a great testament that all our efforts to make this company a great place to work are bearing fruit and I am grateful to our employees for giving us such high marks."

Winners will be recognized and ranking revealed at an evening reception on June 13, 2007 at Danada House in Wheaton.
