Paylocity Named to Inc. 5000 List

Arlington Heights, Illinois – September 10, 2007 – Paylocity, America's leading independent provider of payroll and human resource solutions, has been named to the Inc. 5000 list for 2007.

This is the third time Inc. Magazine recognized Paylocity as one of the nation's fastest-growing, privately held companies.

"We are thrilled once again to be honored by Inc. for our continued growth," says Steve Sarowitz, CEO of Paylocity.

The Inc. 5000, a deeper, broader incarnation of the Inc. 500, represents the creme de la creme of more than 7,000,000 privately held United States firms.

"This has been a banner year for us all around. Our flagship product, WebPay, was recently awarded five stars, the highest possible ranking by the CPA Technology Advisor, a leading trade publication for tech-savvy accountants."

"In fact, we have grown so quickly that we recently relocated our corporate headquarters to Arlington Heights, Illinois and expanded our support team so we can keep providing exceptional service to our clients."

Paylocity's attention to service is paying off. According to a recent client survey, 90% of its clients would recommend the company to a friend or business associate.
