

July 14, 2009

Paylocity Named One of Best Places to Work in Chicago

Tuesday, July 14, 2009 – Paylocity, America’s leading independent payroll provider, has been named one of 101 Best & Brightest Companies to work for in Chicago for the fifth consecutive year.

“We are thrilled to be once again named one of the best places to work,” says Steve Sarowitz, Paylocity CEO. “Our talented and dedicated staff has enabled to grow our operating revenue by 30% this year despite the worst economic climate since the Great Depression. We are passionate about giving each employee a great experience here at Paylocity. My motto is: Happy employees equal happy clients. This award is a testament that all our efforts in making Paylocity a great place to work are bearing fruit.”

The selection of the 2009 winning companies is a result of an evaluation conducted by an independent research firm. “This year’s companies have created impressive organizational value and business results through their policies and Best Practices in human resource management,” said Jennifer Kluge, NABR president.

Chicago’s 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For is sponsored by ABC-7 Chicago News, America Chartered Bank, Assurance Agency, FONIA International, Inc. The Management Association of Illinois, Center for Research and Services, Crowe Horwath, KPMG, Skender Construction, West Monroe Partners and Verizon Wireless.

NABR will be honoring winning companies, as well as presenting 11 elite awards, at the annual event which will take place on Monday, August 10, 2009 at the Chicago Oak Brook Marriott. Judy Hsu from ABC-7 Chicago News and Pat Cassidy from WLS 890 AM News Radio will emcee the awards ceremony.