Paylocity Adds HRAnswerLink HR Support Center and Consulting Services

Elk Grove Village, Illinois – April 3, 2007 – Paylocity, America's leading independent provider of payroll and human resource solutions, announced that it has added the HRAnswerLink HR Support Center and Consulting Services to the core services it will offer its clients. HRAnswerLink is a national provider of human resources information, expertise and resources. The HRAnswerLink HR Support Center provides resources and professional assistance to the thousands of small business owners and managers across the US through their network of business affiliates. Paylocity HR Support Services are available on the web, email or over the phone, not just as a reference but as a personal consultant who can help solve problems. Paylocity clients will be able to work directly with human resource experts to help solve their specific complicated HR issues.

The Paylocity Branded HR Support Center offers a solution for clients seeking to optimize employee productivity and minimize exposure to costly lawsuits and audits by providing authoritative resources for HR problem identification and resolution. The HRAnswerLink HR Support Center will be branded under the name Paylocity HR Support Center and made available to all Paylocity clients nationwide.

The Paylocity HR Support Center meets the needs of small and mid-sized organizations with low-cost access to HR information, resources and personalized assistance. Because the HR Support Center leverages the power of the Internet to deliver HR authoritative information directly to the desktop, clients enjoy maximum flexibility and convenience. The price for this service is substantially less than pricing of lesser quality services provided by its competitors.

"We are thrilled to partner with HRAnswerLink," says Paylocity President Steve Sarowitz. "HRAnswerLink allows us to offer an additional cost effective way to help our clients improve their HR processes."

Since HRAnswerLink was launched in 1997, thousands of companies in all 50 states have subscribed to their service.

According to Dennis Abraham, President of HRAnswerLink, "The opportunity to partner with a company the size and caliber of Paylocity Corporation is very exciting for us. In this business, we spend weeks in building relationships because our strategic partnerships are critical to our success and representation in the marketplace. We are very careful to deal with only the best. Paylocity has twice been named the leading independent payroll service in America and meets or exceeds that and every other criterion we have. The business communities they serve should be delighted to have our services in addition to the fine services that they already provide."
